A world away from normality...

Luxurious, breathtaking, simply special, a place to be you, to be with friends, family or business associates, an escape from the hustle and bustle of everyday life...

"We'd like to share Mosborough Hall with you"

Set in six acres of countryside on the Derbyshire and Yorkshire border, Mosborough Hall exudes luxury and contemporary styling, yet has been sympathetically developed to retain original features and historic charm. Discover Mosborough Hall for yourself, stay, celebrate or dine with us and be captivated by the beauty of the place and warmth of the people.

Be indulgent...

Turn off the alarm, forget the outside world and indulge in some rest and relaxation beneath the Egyptian cotton sheets and feather down duvet that awaits you in one of our forty-four luxurious bedrooms.

Invigorate your senses with a power shower, kick off your shoes and watch 'nothing' on TV, access the internet using free Wi-Fi, or give in to temptation and order from our delicious room service menu.

For an extra indulgence, why not spoil yourself in one of our two feature rooms. These exquisite rooms, both refurbished to the highest of standards, combining old world charm with contemporary soft furnishings and state of the art wet rooms with Molton brown toiletries.

Be naughty...

As the saying goes 'A little of what you fancy does you good', and at Mosborough Hall we like to give your taste buds a treat. The only problem you may have with our food and drink is deciding what to choose first.

Book a table at Darcy's for informal dining with Sheffield's finest, namely the musicians depicted in art on the walls of our, warm and friendly Brasserie. Sample healthy options or try something naughty, seven days a week, from scrumptious seasonal menus, designed by our talented chef using locally sourced ingredients.

Take a drink or meal in our sophisticated glass extension, overlooking south facing lawns. Awash with natural light during the day, mood lighting in the evening, our bar is the perfect place for coffee or cocktails, a place to relax and forget life's pressures.

Be the centre of attention...

Can you imagine your wedding or reception at a historic house, with rolling lawns, stunning interiors and gorgeous food? At Mosborough Hall, we have all these ingredients, and with experience of hosting over fifteen hundred weddings, we know we can make your dream day a reality.

Each of our rooms licensed for civil weddings is different in decor, size and aspect and by visiting our venue, we feel sure one room will find a place in your heart.

Whether you're planning an intimate gathering of four or family banquet for two hundred and fifty we can accommodate your needs.

In all these arrangements, we never forget that it's your day and you deserve to be the centre of attention. Our wedding co-ordinators are on hand to respond to your every need. From pre-nuptial beauty treatments, to catering, room decoration and bridal and guest accommodation.

Be envied...

Great celebrations make lasting memories and at Mosborough Hall, our team are committed to creating events that leave party guests wanting to come back for more.

Our lavish function rooms have an instant wow factor. Hosting special events from tribute evenings, awards evenings and presentations, to Soul and Mowtown nights.

Birthdays, engagements, christenings, anniversaries, celebrating Christmas and New Years... or any excuse for a party. Indoors or outside for a barbeque in the courtyard, whether you're inviting a small group of friends or hundreds of guests at Mosborough Hall, you can drink, dine and dance the day or night away with an event to remember.

Be motivated...

At Mosborough Hall there's an atmosphere conducive to business. As you pass beneath the watchful gaze of former Lords of Mosborough you know you've found somewhere special, a place with space to think, room for ideas, privacy for negotiations or team building.

Stylish conference rooms for up to 250 delegates, and syndicate rooms enjoying natural light ideal for groups of up to 20. Modern business tools such as free Wi-Fi, flipcharts and plasma screens included.

12 and 24 hour delegate packages available.

Relax in the bar, lounge or old hall breakout areas with Italian coffees, cocktails or order a long cool drink on the patio, set within the stunning 6 acre grounds.

Need more than a day? Why not make a night of it and take advantage of our delegate stay over rate, which includes dinner at Darcy's Brasserie.

Be yourself at Mosborough Hall

Unwind in our luxurious bedrooms, indulge your senses at Darcy's, celebrate in style or motivate your team to business success . Whatever the occasion, make it your time and make it memorable with Mosborough Hall.
